## 3-Day Kolkata Itinerary: A Journey Through the City of Joy

**Trip Dates:** August 25-27, 2025

### Weather Summary (August 25-27, 2025)

Expect warm and humid weather with average temperatures around **28.6 - 29.0°C**. There's a high chance of ***Patchy rain nearby*** on all three days, typical for Kolkata during this time of year. It's advisable to carry an umbrella or a light raincoat.

### Accommodation Recommendation

For your stay, we recommend **The Oberoi Grand** (15, Jawaharlal Nehru Road, Kolkata). It is a centrally located, historic hotel offering elegance and convenience, with a rating of 4.7. Other notable options include **HYATT REGENCY KOLKATA** (Salt Lake City) or **FLOATEL KOLKATA** (a unique experience on the river).

### Transportation Notes

As per the data, there are no direct flights to Kolkata from your origin; road or train travel from Delhi is suggested. Once in Kolkata, the city offers various modes of transport:

* **Taxis:** Traditional yellow cabs, as well as app-based services like Ola and Uber, are widely available and convenient.

* **Metro:** Kolkata has India's oldest metro system, which is efficient and can help you navigate some parts of the city, especially avoiding traffic.

* **Auto-rickshaws & Buses:** Good for shorter distances and experiencing local life, but can be crowded.

* Consider distances between attractions while planning your commute to maximize your time.

### Budget Remarks

* **Food:** An estimated budget of **~INR 1750 per person per day** (approx. $20 USD at 87.56 INR/USD) should cover meals at mid-range restaurants and some street food experiences.

* **Activities:** Entrance fees for attractions are generally modest and variable.

* **Local Transport:** Daily local transport costs could range from INR 200-500 depending on usage.

### Day 1: Heritage & Culture of Kolkata

**Morning (9:30 AM - 1:00 PM): Colonial Grandeur at Victoria Memorial****

* Start your day with a visit to the iconic Victoria Memorial (Rating: 4.6, 84421 reviews). This magnificent white marble building, dedicated to Queen Victoria, houses a museum with a vast collection of colonial-era artifacts, paintings, and sculptures. Take your time to explore the grand architecture and the lush gardens surrounding it.

* Transport: Easily accessible by taxi or ride-sharing apps.

Lunch (1:00 PM - 2:30 PM): Local Flavors near Park Street

* Head towards the Park Street area, a bustling hub known for its restaurants. Enjoy authentic Bengali cuisine or explore other culinary options.

* Food Spot Suggestion: Look for local eateries offering traditional thalis (meal platters) or try famous Kolkata street food like 'Kathi Rolls' or 'Phuchka' (pani puri).

Afternoon (2:30 PM - 5:30 PM): Interactive Learning at Birla Industrial & Technological Museum

* After lunch, visit the Birla Industrial & Technological Museum (Rating: 4.6, 9552 reviews). This interactive science museum is engaging for all ages, offering hands-on exhibits in various scientific fields.

* Transport: A short taxi ride from Park Street.

Evening (6:00 PM onwards): Stroll and Dine at Park Street

* Return to Park Street for a lively evening. Enjoy the vibrant atmosphere, browse shops, or simply take a leisurely stroll.

* Dinner & Entertainment: Consider dining at Hard Rock Cafe Kolkata (Rating: 4.4, 9981 reviews) for a casual, music-filled experience, or choose from a myriad of other restaurants offering diverse cuisines.

* Transport: Taxis or ride-sharing will be available.

### Day 2: Science, Nature & Modern Kolkata

Morning (9:30 AM - 1:30 PM): Explore Science City

* Devote your morning to Science City (Rating: 4.4, 96491 reviews), a large science center offering a wide array of attractions. Explore the Science Exploration Hall (Rating: 4.3) for engaging exhibits and the Dynamotion Hall (Rating: 4.4) for interactive displays on physics and motion. It's an excellent spot for families and science enthusiasts.

* Transport: Accessible by taxi or auto-rickshaw.

Lunch (1:30 PM - 2:30 PM): Meal Near Eco Park

* Grab a quick lunch before heading to your next destination. There are various food stalls and cafes around the Science City or en route to Eco Park.

* Food Spot Suggestion: Nature's Café (Rating: 4.2, 246 reviews) is located near Eco Park and could be an option.

Afternoon (2:30 PM - 6:00 PM): Relaxation at Eco Park & 7 Wonders

* Spend your afternoon at Eco Park (Rating: 4.5, 178872 reviews), one of Kolkata's largest urban parks. It offers diverse activities, from boating to cycling, and has thematic gardens. Don't miss the 7

Wonders - Eco Park** section (Rating: 4.6, 5534 reviews), which features miniature replicas of the Seven Wonders of the World. You can also explore the **Japanese Forest** (Rating: 4.5) within the park.

* **Transport:** Eco Park is located in Newtown, a bit further out. Taxis or ride-sharing are recommended.

**Evening (6:30 PM onwards): Cultural Evening or Leisure**

* For your final evening, consider a visit to **Rabindra Tirtha** (Rating: 4.5, 3202 reviews), a cultural center dedicated to Rabindranath Tagore, often hosting events or exhibitions.

* Alternatively, enjoy a relaxing dinner at a restaurant of your choice in the Park Street area or near your accommodation.

* **Dinner Suggestion:** Explore more Bengali delicacies or international cuisine options available across the city.

* **Transport:** Taxis or ride-sharing services are readily available.

### Day 3: Historic North & Riverside Serenity

**Morning (9:30 AM - 1:00 PM): Iconic Bridge & Artisan Quarter**

* Start your day early with a visit to the iconic **Howrah Bridge**, a massive cantilever bridge over the Hooghly River. While you can't walk *on* it in its entirety, you can get great views from the banks and witness the bustling life around it.

* Right beside it, immerse yourself in the vibrant chaos of **Malik Ghat Flower Market** (Rating: 4.4, 6940 reviews), one of Asia's largest and oldest flower markets. It's a fantastic photo opportunity and a raw glimpse into local life.

* From there, head to **Kumortuli** (Rating: 4.6, 1756 reviews), the traditional potters' quarter where magnificent Durga Puja idols and other deities are crafted from clay. It's a unique cultural experience, showcasing incredible artistry and devotion.

* **Transport:** Taxis or ride-sharing are best for navigating this area. The Metro can get you close to Howrah Bridge, but for Malik Ghat and Kumortuli, local transport like auto-rickshaws or walking is needed.

**Lunch (1:00 PM - 2:30 PM): Traditional Bengali Thali**

* Explore the North Kolkata area for an authentic Bengali lunch experience.

* **Food Spot Suggestion:** Seek out local establishments that serve traditional Bengali thalis or fresh fish preparations. Try **Bhojohori Manna** (various outlets across the city, known for Bengali cuisine) or smaller, highly-rated local eateries.

**Afternoon (2:30 PM - 5:30 PM): Architectural Grandeur & Spiritual Peace**

* Visit **St. Paul's Cathedral** (Rating: 4.5, 11620 reviews), an Anglican cathedral renowned for its Indo-Gothic architecture and beautiful stained glass windows. It offers a serene and peaceful escape from the city's hustle.

* If time permits and you're interested in history and natural science, consider a focused visit to the **Indian Museum** (Rating: 4.4, 18774 reviews), the oldest and largest museum in India. Choose one or two sections that interest you most (e.g., the Egyptian mummy, natural history, or art galleries), as exploring the entire museum can take several hours.

* **Transport:** Taxis or ride-sharing will connect these central locations easily.

**Evening (6:00 PM onwards): Riverside Sunset & Culinary Delights**

* Head to **Prinsep Ghat** (Rating: 4.5, 23795 reviews) for a magical sunset view over the Hooghly River, with the iconic Vidyasagar Setu (Second Hooghly Bridge) in the backdrop. You can take a leisurely stroll along the banks, enjoy a short boat ride on the river, or simply relax and soak in the atmosphere.

* **Dinner & Sweet Indulgence:** For your farewell dinner, consider another culinary adventure. Perhaps explore some of Kolkata's famous sweet shops for traditional Bengali 'mishti' like Rosogolla, Sandesh, or Mishti Doi. For dinner, you could try a fine dining Bengali restaurant or revisit the vibrant Park Street area for diverse options.

* **Transport:** Easily accessible by taxi or ride-sharing.

Practical Tips for Your Kolkata Visit:

* **Stay Hydrated:** The August weather can be quite humid. Drink plenty of water and tender coconut water.

* **Carry an Umbrella/Raincoat:** Be prepared for sudden showers due to the "Patchy rain" forecast.

* **Comfortable Footwear:** You'll be doing a fair amount of walking, especially at sites like Victoria Memorial, Eco Park, and the flower market.

* **Embrace Street Food:** Kolkata is famous for its diverse and delicious street food. While trying, opt for popular, busy stalls for freshness.

* **Bargain (Respectfully):** If you plan to shop at local markets (like New Market, if you add it to your itinerary), bargaining is common and expected.

* **Respect Local Customs:** Dress modestly when visiting religious sites.

* **Keep Valuables Safe:** As with any busy city, be mindful of your belongings in crowded areas.

* **Photography:** Always ask for permission before photographing people, especially in more traditional areas.

* **Local Language:** A few basic Bengali phrases like "Nomoshkar" (Hello), "Dhonnobad" (Thank you), and "Kemon achen?" (How are you?) can go a long way.

Enjoy your vibrant and memorable trip to Kolkata!
